Revision Worksheet #1

What Is an Adverb?

An adverb is a word used to modify a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

For example:

- She runs quickly.
(Here, the adverb quickly modifies the verb runs.)
- She is an extremely quick runner.
(Here, the adverb extremely modifies the adjective quick.)
- She runs extremely quickly.
(Here, the adverb extremely modifies the adverb quickly.)

When an adverb modifies a verb, it usually tells us how, when, where, how often, and how much the action is performed.

Here are some examples of adverbs modifying verbs:

- How: He ran quickly.
- When: He ran yesterday.
- Where: He ran here.

Q1- Underline the adverbs in these sentences:-

- 1- The children are playing outside.
- 2- The great wall of China is really huge.
